Applied Educational Leadership and Management

Study online with the University of London

This course has been developed by the Institute of Education, a premier international institution in the field of educational enquiry and research.

The course is internationally focused and designed for education professionals who play, or aspire to play a part in the leadership and management of schools and colleges.

You will acquire knowledge, understanding and skills for leadership and management in education and apply them to your own place of work.

Studying in an online environment with colleagues from other institutions and cultures will enable you to compare experiences with them, and gain valuable new insights into working life and its challenges.

Application deadline: 30 June 2005.
